Speaker Bio:

Director of International
Students, Tauranga
Intermediate School

Topic -
Best Practice Panel - Primary &
Intermediate Schools

Annemieke is the international director of international students and cultural exchanges at Tauranga Intermediate School.

International students are an integral part of the school culture at Tauranga Intermediate School including promoting sustainable growth and global citizenship.

Annemieke is extremely passionate about exposing students to numerous experiences so they become part of our global community. She has been in this role for the past 23 years (even prior to the Code) with some amazing adventures around the globe.

She values the commitment that families make for their children by spending time in another country.
