International Finances

Meet Cheryl English, the Business Manager for Shirley Boys' High and Avonside Girls' High School, and Vice President of the School Business Managers' Association.

Collocated on the same site, since 2019, each school's international department has well established programmes and opportunities for international students on the east side of Christchurch. Both Board's invested in keeping their international departments operating during Covid and building capacity to manage growth when the borders reopened.

Cheryl has been in the education sector for over 30 years from early childhood teaching to a variety of administration roles including International Student Administrator for a small area school.

Cheryl worked for a financial service provider for 10 years helping a variety of schools to set up their international department budgets and financial procedures.
