SIEBA CONFERENCE 25-26 JUNE 2024

Speaker Bio:

Jessica's journey into international education began with her own transformative experience as an international student in New Zealand 22 years ago. With over 15 years of expertise spanning schools, Private Training Establishments (PTEs), and now the University of Auckland, Jessica brings a wealth of knowledge to her role.

Currently serving as an International Manager, Jessica oversees student recruitment across Oceania, nurturing relationships with secondary schools, pathway providers, and agent channels.

Her commitment to cross-cultural connections fosters an inclusive environment that celebrates diversity. Jessica's passion for international education continues to inspire and empower students worldwide
