

Member Service Manager

Topic - Unlocking SIEBA's offerings: A comprehensive workshop on available services and solutions

Speaker Bio:

Simon comes from a background in international schooling, having spent all his school education in international schools outside New Zealand. Following his schooling, Simon focused on teaching English abroad both at school and university level.

In 2020 Simon returned to New Zealand with his partner and completed his teacher training and he is passionate about global citizenship education and promoting the value of international education.

Prior to joining SIEBA as the Member Services Manager in 2022, Simon ran Howick College's online education programme for international students who could not return to New Zealand due to the pandemic and the borders being closed.

Simon has a Graduate Diploma in Teaching, a Master's Degree in Educational Technology and a Business Degree in Entrepreneurship.
