

Fran Baxter

Co-founder & Director of Education for Value Learning,
Intercultural Specialists.

Topic: Global Competence in International Education

Fran Baxter is an educator who designs and delivers intercultural learning programs for students and educators across Australia and APAC. She works across schools and higher education to build competence in intercultural understanding, global citizenship, and preparation and support for international education.

Fran was the CEO of AFS Intercultural Programs Australia and held responsibility for student wellbeing and support, host family recruitment, orientation and support, and volunteer and staff learning and development. She is a graduate of the UC Berkeley's Centre for Intercultural Leadership where she completed the Global DEI Practitioner Institute.

Over the last 10 years she has designed and managed government projects including the DFAT funded Australia-Indonesia Youth Exchange Program, the Victorian Young Leaders Programs to China, India and Indonesia, and the Racial Inclusion Pilot Program on behalf of the Tasmanian Department of Education.

Fran is on the executive team for the World Council on Intercultural and Global Competence and is the co-founder and Executive Director of Value Learning, Intercultural Specialists.
