Jennifer Kirkham is SIEBA's Member Services Manager – Resources & Support. She loves helping schools become Code signatories and build their knowledge and confidence in recruiting and supporting their international students.

Jennifer served as Director of International Students at Waiheke High School and Botany Downs Secondary College for a total of 13 years before joining SIEBA as PLD Operations Manager in 2017. She took a year's break in 2023-2024 to do a Master's, before rejoining SIEBA for a fixed term in February 2025. Her position was made permanent in December 2025.

Prior to working in international education, Jennifer worked as a corporate training consultant, marketing and delivering programmes in communication and presentation skills; and before that, she began her career as a high school teacher of English and History.
