Jo is the International Student Manager at Epsom Girls' Grammar School. She has worked in the education industry for over 15 years, and prior to her current position, Jo held the role of Accommodation Co-ordinator/Manager at EGGs for seven years. With this background, Jo holds a wealth of experience and knowledge in supporting our international students and the importance of building strong relationships with host families.

Jo enjoys focussing on pastoral care, mentoring and going on a journey with every one of our students from their orientation through to their graduation. Throughout this journey supporting, and empowering our students to thrive and reach their full potential.

Jo grew up having international students living with her family, which created a rich understanding for other cultures and a love for travelling the world from a very young age.
